The Riverside Press,

Cambridge, Mass., June 7, 1887.

Dear Mr. Shay:

The Westons are now at the Parker House (Room 155) and will sail for England in the Cephalonia on Thursday P.M.; so if you do not come down till Friday you will just miss them.

I should think 200 copies of the O.J. pamphlet would cover our needs, in view of the Society's distribution; & that 250 would be ample.

In haste, affect.
